

SEMICOLON Team Blog Website Documentation

Table of Content:

1. Introduction
2. Features
3. Technical Stack
4. Usage
5. Conclusion

1-Introduction

The SEMICOLON Team Blog Website is a project aimed at creating a platform where users can register, log in, write blog posts, comment on posts, and add pictures. This documentation provides an overview of the project, the features it offers, and instructions on how to set it up and use it.

2-Features

- User Registration and Login: Users can create accounts and log in.
- Blog Post Creation: Users can write and publish blog posts.
- Commenting: Users can comment on blog posts.
- Image Upload : Users can add images to their blog posts.
- User Information Management : A database to store and manage user information.

3-Technical Stack

- Frontend: HTML, CSS, JavaScript
- Backend: HTML, PHP
- Database: MySQL
- Image Storage: local storage

4-Usage

- Register: Users can sign up by providing a username, email, and password.
- Login: Registered users can log in using their credentials.
- Create Post: Logged-in users can create new blog posts.
- Comment: Users can comment on any blog post.
- Add Image: Users can upload images to their posts.

5-Conclusion

This documentation provides a comprehensive overview of the SEMICOLON Team Blog Website project. By following the setup instructions and understanding the project's structure, developers can effectively collaborate and contribute to the project's development.